IN RE:

C/A No. 15-03502-JW

James Frazier McCollum and Rita Pearl
McCollum,

Chapter 13

ORDER GRANTING DISCHARGE
UNDER 11 U.S.C. § 1328(i)

Debtor(s).

This matter comes before the Court upon the Certification of Plan Completion and Request for Discharge filed by James Frazier McCollum and Ria Pearl McCollum (“Debtors”) and the Response to Notice of Final Cure Payment pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3002.1(g) (“Response”) filed by HSBC Bank USA, National Association as Trustee for Wells Fargo Home Equity Asset-Backed Securities 2006-1 Trust, Home Equity Asset Backed Certificates, Series 2006-1 (“HSBC”) on December 11, 2020. The Response indicates that Debtors have failed to pay $4,364.40 in direct payments required by the terms of Debtors’ confirmed plan. The Response also indicates that the vast majority of the alleged missed payments were the result of a forbearance agreement entered by the parties for the April, May and June 2020 payments.

Section 1328(i) of the Bankruptcy Code<sup>1</sup> provides that “the court may grant a discharge of debts dischargeable under subsection (a) to a debtor who has not completed payments to the trustee or to a creditor holding a security interest in principal residence of the debtor if—. . .the plan provides for the curing of a default and maintenance of payments on a residential mortgage under section 1322(b)(5); and the debtor has entered into a forbearance agreement or loan modification agreement with the holder or servicer . . . of the mortgage . . . .”<sup>2</sup> In the present matter, Debtors provided treatment of HSBC's secured claim under § 1322(b)(5) in their confirmed plan and have entered a forbearance agreement with HSBC, which constitutes the vast majority of payments listed in the Response.

Further, when factoring in the payments included in the forbearance agreement, the remaining portion of the missed payment listed in HSBC's Response that were due at the completion of the plan is less than one full monthly mortgage payment. As it appears this partially missed payment was directly or indirectly the result of a material financial hardship related to COVID 19, it should not preclude Debtors from receiving a standard discharge. Specifically, under § 1328(i)(1), a debtor may receive a standard discharge if the debtor has not missed more than three monthly post-petition mortgage payments as a result of a COVID-19 related financial hardship.<sup>3</sup> Therefore, the Court finds the requirements of § 1328(i) are satisfied in this matter, and Debtors are entitled to a standard discharge under § 1328(a).

The Court also finds that the debt of HSBC will not be discharged in this case pursuant to § 1328(a)(1), which excepts a debt provided for under § 1322(b)(5) from a standard discharge. Nonetheless, Debtors are otherwise entitled to a discharge under § 1328(a), which shall be issued forthwith by the Court.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

<sup>3</sup> The Court also notes that the amount of missed payments appears to be de minimis, and therefore, should not preclude Debtors from receiving a discharge.
